C. H. & D. BUILT ANOTHER FENCE

Arthur Street For the Second
Time is "Fenced in" at Railroad

HAVE ENJOINED CITY

City Council Was Busy This Afternoon Assessing Damages to Company

For the second time in the past week the C. H. & D. and Arthur street crossing has taken on the appearance of San Juan, just before Roosevelt and his rough riders approached the Spanish fort, inasmuch as another wire fence has been built across the newly improved street, where it crosses the C. H. & D. railroad tracks, just west of the freight house.

A few weeks ago, it will be remembered, the railroad company, in the early morning hours, built a fence across Arthur street, which was promptly taken down by order of Mayor Cowing, with a threat that if another fence was built arrests would follow.

This morning the C. H. & D. company sent its fence gang to the scene of controversy, and erected another wire fence across the street. Mayor Cowing had intended tearing it down, but the railroad company got an injunction against the city and now all that is left to do is to act from a legal standpoint.

This afternoon the city council, City Attorney Young and Mayor Cowing were busy in assessing the damages and when an assessment is agreed upon the money will be tendered to the C. H. & D. company and if they will not accept it, the case will probably go to the higher courts.

The feeling between the city and railroad is possibly not the kindest because of the depot situation and it is understood that the railroad has some tracks on city property which an attempt will be made to have the company remove if things become serious.

RECITAL WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Miss Booth's Pupils Show Much
Good Talent—Excellent
Program

The recital given by the pupils of Miss Pearl Booth, assisted by Mrs. Charles Maxwell, of Indianapolis, at St. Paul's M. E. Church Saturday afternoon and evening was well attended and the recital was a success from the standpoint of entertainment.

Each pupil was well received by the audience in their work which all did so well. Much good talent was found in the pupils by Miss Booth which will some day be a credit to Rushville and community.

Mrs. F. O. Cox and son Maxwell, Mrs. W. M. Bennett, were guests from Indianapolis, accompanied by the following visiting pupils: Donna Bennett, Ilda Courtot, Corinne Cox and Thomas Cox. Mrs. Charles Maxwell rendered several excellent vocal selections, which proved her to be a lady of exceptional ability as a vocalist.

—Fremont Freeman, of Cambridge City, came down today and visited Mrs. E. L. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cotton, of Manila, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cassady. Mr. Cotton will go to Lynchburg, Va., this week with his fine stock and from there he will go to the State fair at Richmond, Va. Mr. Cotton has some blue ribbon getters and are an honor to old Rush county as a fine stock county.

Mayor Tom L. Johnson was nominated by acclamation at the Cleveland Democratic convention for mayor to oppose Congressman Burton, the Republican nominee.

The trial of United States Senator William E. Borah opened at Boise, Idaho, today, on charges of conspiring to defraud the government by securing timber lands.

SLOW, BUT SURE

Ezra Meeker Arrived in New York City Thursday

Ezra Meeker, the old gentleman who passed through this city a few months ago in an old fashioned prairie "Schooner" drawn by a team of fine oxen, arrived in New York City, Thursday afternoon, and attracted considerable attention because of the strangeness of his turnout and the great journey he had performed.

WILL ENTERTAIN COMMISSIONERS

Gates Sexton Will Partake of Mayor Bookwalter's Hospitality Tomorrow

All arrangements are complete for the annual meeting of the county commissioners of the State at which Gates Sexton, representing Rush county, will speak on "County Institutions," and will begin in the criminal court room tomorrow morning at Indianapolis. In addition to the regular sessions, arrangements have been made by John McGregor, president of the organization, and his assistants for entertainment of the commissioners in royal style.

At 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the commissioners will have lunch on the new Emerichville bridge, which has just been completed, and is one of the most beautiful bridges in the State. Tuesday evening they and their friends will be entertained at the Gayety Theatre, a boxing contest following the regular performance.

The meeting will close Wednesday evening with a banquet at the Grand Hotel.

RUSH COUNTY IS LEADING IN STOCK

John Boyd Wins First Premium
at Each County Fair
This Year

John F. Boyd, the fancy stock man, has returned from Ft. Wayne, where he won all the first premiums at the fair at that place last week. Mr. Boyd holds a record which speaks well for this county in the way of fine stock breeding. He has attended almost all of the county fairs and the State fair, and he has never been beaten, but has won the first premiums at each fair.

At the Fort Wayne fair last week he won the following premiums: First on three-year-old cow, $10; first on two-year-old cow, $8; first premium on one-year-old, $6; first premium on four animals the got of one sire, $12; first premium on two animals, the produce of one cow, $8; first premium on exhibitor's herd, $20; first premium on breeder's herd, $25; first premium on best bull of any age, $10; first premium on three-year-old bull, $6; second premium on heifer calf, $2; making a total of $107.00 in premiums, besides a championship premium.

PROUD OF THE RECORD HIS HORSES HAVE MADE

Harry Jones Brought Home a Few Horses Today to Rest up

Harry Jones came home from Columbus, Ohio, today and brought a few of his horses in to rest up for the State fair at Lexington, Ky., next week. Harry will drive in the races at the State fair at Columbus this week. He is very proud of the record his horses have been making for Rush county and himself this season.

RUSH COUNTY IS PROSPEROUS

Increase in Real Estate
This Year Over That of Previous Year

DECREASE IN TAX LEVY

General Prosperity is Abounds in Almost Every County in State

Although farm land and other property has increased greatly in value in nearly all of the counties of Indiana, the land owners will not be called upon, except in a few counties, to bear the burden of increased taxes.

Reports taken from over the State and given in the Indianapolis Star today, show that in most of the counties where the assessment has been raised, the tax rate has been lowered, so no additional burden will be imposed upon the property owner.

In some counties the tax rate has been decreased to such an extent that the actual expense to the property owners will be even less than it has been in previous years. In many cases this has been due to the good condition of the roads. Gravel roads have been completed and the counties have no expense to face along this line. Reports show also that nearly all counties are in excellent condition financially.

The decrease in taxation in Rush county occasioned by the increase in valuation by the recent reappraisal, is found to be 3 cents. However, the taxpayers will not profit 3 cents in the tax levy, as the State taxes are increased 2 cents. The net increase in valuation over last year is almost $1,000,000. The notable increase is in real estate, the largest item of either personal or real is the assessed valuation of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction Company, which amounts to $345,085.

THIEF STOLE NEW COAT FROM AUTO

Earl Churchill, the Victim of Bold Robbery in Indianapolis Sunday

There was more than gasoline expenses for Earl Churchill of this city, in an automobile tour he took yesterday. After driving the machine to Indianapolis with a merry party aboard he stopped in front of the Denison hotel, where they took luncheon, and after the meal was surprised to find that some daring thief had made away with his new top overcoat while they were eating.

The matter was reported to the police, but no trace of the thief was found.

SCHOOL PROBLEM IS ALMOST SOLVED

Trustee of Washington Township Will Sell School Building and Purchase Hack

The school situation in Washington township, which has been puzzling the heads of Trustee Hall and the interested patrons as to what to do, is at last thought to be about solved.

Under the conditions is Mr. Hall can borrow no more money, neither can he re-open the Lall school, which was abandoned last year because of lack of attendance of the required number of pupils.

Trustee Hall and the advisory board sat up several nights figuring out the proposition. The pupils of that district must be educated, and the trustee wants to do the best thing for all concerned, and therefore the final decision has been to sell the Lall school building and purchase a hack to convey the children to another school. Making another step in consolidation which will be the ultimate result of the district schools in

Would Mould Future Of Our Great State.

The Honorable Joe Bowles, the well known political platform orator, fortune teller, and what not, was on our streets Saturday firing off some campaign torpedoes and getting tuned up for an emancipation speech which he is to make to the colored people of Carthage next week. When asked if he was aspiring to a seat in the State legislature the gray haired man threw out his cud of dog leg tobacco, gave two spits, blew his nose on his red bandana handkerchief and addressed the writer in tones loud enough to attract the attention of passersby: "I know the law of Moses, the ten commandments, can repeat the constitution of the United States by heart, can almost repeat every inaugural speech verbatim, of each of the twenty-six Presidents of the United States, and if it is the wish of the great masses of Indiana that I should mold the future destiny of this great State I will consent to become a candidate for representative."

CLAIMS TO BE OF NOBILITY

Old Man Recently at County
Poor Farm Here Now
at Greensburg

SPEAKS MANY LANGUAGES

Left Here For Columbus Where
He Said He Was Going to Make Address

The Greensburg Review says: "A man taken into custody by Marshal Dickey at 9 o'clock Friday morning either intoxicated or under the influence of morphine is an interesting subject."

He gives his name as William Robinson, of Dublin, Ireland, and claims to be the heir of a millionaire. He says that he was born in Ireland in 1833, and is the disowned son of an Irish nobleman.

This is the same unfortunate taken into custody in Rushville recently. After being given the King treatment at the jail he was committed to the county poor farm where Seth Kelso handled him a few weeks, and turned him out, pronounced partially cured. He left here saying he was going to Columbus to deliver a lecture on "Papacy."

MORRISTOWN TO BE ON WATER WAGON ROUTE

A blanket remonstrance carrying the names of 278 voters of Hanover township in Shelby county, has been filed with the county auditor at Shelbyville. This means that there will be no saloon in Morristown after October 2d, for a period of two years at least. It is said that no bitter feeling was engendered in the community over the contest.

"WATSON CLUB"

Don't forget to attend the meeting at the court house this evening, to extend the hand of congratulation to "Our Jim" in the step he has taken in the race for Governor of Indiana. This is a great honor to the citizens of Rush county regardless of politics, to have one of her sons seeking the highest office in the State. So eat your supper and walk down to the court house this evening, where the "Watson Club" will be organized, and identify yourself with this club which promises to be the most prominent organization of its kind in Indiana. Let every voter in the county come out tonight and start a great glorious campaign, which will result in triumphant victory for Rush county's illustrious son when the time comes to "choose among men" for the executive office of the best State in the Union.

Condition of Mrs. Watt Perkins, of this city, is much improved and hopes of her speedy recovery are maintained by her many friends.

ACCUSES HIS FATHER-IN-LAW

Hamilton Swears Out Warrant
Charging Curme With Burning Barn

OLD MAN DENIES GUILT

Case Will be Given Preliminary Hearing Tomorrow Morning
at Connersville

Alva Hamilton has sworn out an affidavit charging William Curme with setting fire to his barn, which burned Thursday, near Orange. Curme walked to Connersville Saturday and surrendered himself to Sheriff Jeffrey, stating, however, that he was not guilty of the charges placed against him. Alva Hamilton's account of the matter is, in substance, that certain ones of his neighbors had on the day on which his barn was burned, heard William Curme say that he intended getting even with Alva. The party who had heard the threat went across the fields to where Alva, together with one or two others, was at work, and informed them of what the old man had said. Alva immediately left the others and went in the direction of the barn. Upon drawing near, he saw Curme slinking away from the building partly concealing himself among tall weeds. Soon afterward fire was discovered, which seemed to have started among a quantity of dry sheaf oats in one corner of the building. Such is the substance of Alva Hamilton's statement of the case, and to the important parts William Curme makes general denial.

A preliminary hearing of the case will be held Tuesday morning.

William Curme is the father of Mrs. Hamilton. It was with him that Hamilton has had much of his recent troubles. It was recently reported that he was in the Jay county poor house. Now it is said he has been living at the Hamilton home.

ASKS DAMAGES FOR COWS THAT WERE KILLED

Henry County Case Venued Was to the Rush Circuit Court

The damage suit of Marshall T. Duncan vs. the Indiana & Eastern traction company was being heard in the Rush circuit court today, which is attended by several people from near Greenfield who are called as witnesses.

Mr. Duncan asks the court for damages for a number of cattle which he alleges were killed by a car on the I. & E. traction line. The case was venued from the Henry county court.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT MRS. GREEN'S FUNERAL

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Mary Green, who died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bell Wilson, of North Main street, were held this morning at 10 o'clock conducted by Dr. V. W. Lewis. The services were largely attended by the many friends and relatives of the aged lady, who had a host of friends in every community where she had made acquaintances.

LOCAL BONDS TOOK THE FLEECE OFF HOMERITES

One of the warmest games of the season was the "skinning" of Homer yesterday by the local Indiana Bonds, which resulted in a score of 9 to 0. The Homerites fought manfully in order to keep from being "skunked" but fate was against them and the local boys won the game by forfeit.

A GREAT VICTORY FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL

Over Six Hundred Present at Main Street Christian Church Yesterday

The Bible School Rally at the Main Street Christian church yesterday proved to be a magnificent success. For three weeks the officers and teachers of the school have been working to have a great gathering in the interest of Bible Study, and their efforts were crowned with victory.

Long before nine o'clock people were seen wending their way from all directions toward the church and by 9:15, the church was crowded. Every body was happy and one question was on every tongue, "Shall we have the six hundred?"

An enthusiastic opening program the classes were formed and the rooms were taxed to accommodate the crowd of newcomers who marched in to the accompaniment of the orchestra led by Homer Cole.

The ascent of Mt. Nebo by Moses to view the land of Canaan before his death, the climax of a great life, was an inspiring lesson for Rally Day, when all were on the mountain top of expectation and noble purpose.

When the classes returned to the auditorium and the roll was read by Acting Secretary Russell Cassady, it was found that six hundred and fifty-two were present and the announcement was received with hearty applause. One of the happiest features of the day was the fact that Superintendent Hugh Maury, who has been sick for many weeks was able to be present and enjoy the occasion. During his absence the school has been in charge of Carl Nipp and Russell Cassady, and hard work has been done by all to start a forward movement in Bible study.

The special numbers on the program by the Ladies Quartette and Norma Smith and the primary children were all excellent.

Last night, Rea. Abberley preached on "A Model Young Man," to an audience that filled the large auditorium to its capacity.

An enthusiastic song service of popular hymns preceded the sermon which had an evangelistic ring to it. The church is getting ready for a series of special meetings to begin about the middle of next month.

MOTHER'S CRY DID NOT EFFECT JUDGE

He Decided Mrs. Eake's Was Incapable of Caring
For Boys

The motherly walls from Mrs. Ella Eakes for her children in the habeas corpus proceedings she instituted against the Board of Trustees of the Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home of Knightstown in the Rush circuit court did not have the desired effect upon Judge Sparks, as he has decided that the children are better off in the Home and must remain there.

Her cries which had a ring of pity in them, like that of Absalom of old, would have melted the heart of most men, but the judge's action does not bespeak a hard hearted man; on the other hand it shows a keen judgment, for back of her cries for her two boys, the far sighted judge saw a woman who was incapable of rearing the boys up in the way they should be trained, and he acted wisely on what he knew to be best.

John Bull figures out that his country has been successful in 82 per cent of the battles in which it has engaged.

WAS GREETED WITH APPLAUSE

Congressman Watson Replied to "Gospel According to St. Benjamin"

WAS LOADED FOR BEAR

Eaton People Met "Our Jim"
With a Special Car—Headed
by Prof. Williams

In speaking of the speech of Congressman Watson which he delivered at Eaton yesterday the Indianapolis Star says in part:

In an Emancipation day speech Sunday, Representative James E. Watson, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, declared that the "wild beasts of the African jungles" would be discarded by some of the thoughts advanced by Senator Tillman in his tirades on the race question. An enthusiastic mixed crowd assembled around a flag-bedecked stand in Riverside Park, near there, and applauded to the echo as Mr. Watson proceeded to express his views on "the gospel according to St. Benjamin," as he termed this text. There were as many whites as negroes in the audience and before Mr. Watson had concluded the finishing touches of his oration there was a sort of general agreement all around that "St. Benjamin" is anything but sanctified.

It had been advertised far and wide that Mr. Watson would "skin" Tillman as a sort of punishment for some radical racial ideas advanced by the pitchfork statesman at Anderson a few weeks ago, and he lived up to the high-sounding manifesto contained in the advanced notices. If Tillman had any skin left when Watson got through it was simply hanging in shreds in isolated spots.

Mr. Watson was loaded for bear. He had typewritten copies of some of the choice remarks made by Senator Tillman and he read them to the audience, pausing to express his opinion of both the remarks and the author. Every time he "swatted" the Carolinian there were strong manifestations of approval from the audience and shouts of "That's so" and "That's the truth," etc., from distinguished colored men on the platform.

The gubernatorial candidate was tendered a special car at Muncie and he made the trip to and from Riverside Park in company with a few friends. At the electric railway terminus he was met by a committee of colored citizens, headed by the Rev. J. L. Craven, of Muncie, and Prof. J. H. Williams, principal of the colored schools of Rushville. They escorted him to the stand and Preacher Craven introduced him. The minister was about to present him as "the next Governor of Indiana" or words to that effect, when Mr. Watson requested him to refrain from doing so as it was a non-partisan occasion. Mr. Craven heeded the congressman's wish and apologized to the crowd for not being always able to say what he would like to say. Everybody understood and smiled and that started the meeting off in good style.

Mr. Watson was warmly congratulated by the colored persons who heard his address. They were out in numbers from all the surrounding towns.

FORMER ACTOR TO HOLD MEETINGS IN THIS CITY

The Christian Friends Mission Workers will commence an old fashioned Gospel meeting at the corner of Perkins and Third streets which will be in connection with the local Salvation Army, which will co-operate. The meetings will commence Wednesday evening and continue for two weeks. Rev. E. J. Griffith, the saved actor, and his wife, Mrs. L. N. Griffith, will have charge of the meetings.

"Everybody who is interested and desirous of seeing Hon. James E. Watson nominated for Governor of the State of Indiana are requested to be present at a meeting to be held at the assembly room at the court house on Monday evening, September 23d, 1907, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a 'Watson Club.'"

The blue smoke could be seen curling out of the chimneys this morning which, have been haunted by cobwebs for the past few summer months.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

Caleb Denny Said to Have Eye on Congressman Overstreet's Chair.

Indianapolis, Ind., September 23.—For the first time in eight years Congressman Jesse Overstreet of this district probably will be opposed for re-nomination. Ex-Mayor Caleb Denny is a prospective candidate. In fact, he is regarded as a live aspirant now for the place, as considerable work is being done quietly for him. Denny came near being a candidate two years ago, but was induced to keep out of Overstreet's way. He has harbored an ambition for several years to represent this district in congress, but it seemed that Overstreet had the place clinched. Overstreet is strong here and his followers are proud of his record, but he is not regarded as invincible by Denny's friends. Many say that Overstreet's success here has been due largely to the ability of his managers, Arch Young, R. O. Hawkins, Captain Harry New and others to keep the field clear of opposition. He never has had a hard fight for the nomination, so his strength in a nominating primary or convention has not been demonstrated. Denny, on the other hand, has been elected mayor three times and probably is better known personally among the party workers. He is generally regarded as a man of high ability and character, and if he announces his candidacy a hard fight will be expected.

A movement to obtain one of the national political conventions next year for Indianapolis may be inaugurated soon. There has been more or less agitation of the matter since completion of the livestock pavilion at the state fair grounds. It will seat over 12,000 people and is one of the best buildings of the kind in the country. Party leaders here are growing enthusiastic over the matter. They believe that Indianapolis is in fine shape to entertain a national convention now that it has the hotel and building facilities. The matter has been placed before Chairman Taggart of the Democratic national committee, who very naturally smiles sweetly on Indianapolis's advantage. While not wishing to appear partial, he says he is convinced that Indianapolis is in good shape to entertain a convention. He declares, however, that the business men must raise something like $50,000 for the convention. It is not likely there will be an effort to land the Republican convention lest the friends of the other presidential candidates think that Vice President Fairbanks and his followers are trying to obtain an advantage by having the nomination made in the vice president's own city.

The announcement of Congressman James E. Watson of Rushville that he is a candidate for governor has added fuel to the hotbed of politics in his district. The outlook now is that each county will present at least one candidate for the place Congressman Watson now holds. It is too early to attempt to forecast the outcome, but Judge William O. Barnard of Newcastle, probably will be a leader in the race right from the start. Newcastle is in one of the banner Republican counties in the state and is full of "statesmen" who are willing to serve their country in most any kind of office. The county has not had a congressman for years, and it is fairly burning up with desire to name Watson's successor. Owen Carr of Rushville expects to retire as chairman of the district, and there may be a hard fight for his place. At this time the only avowed candidate is Edward Hess, secretary of the Commercial club at Richmond. Representative Webb Woodfill of Greensburg is talked of for the place, but he is not a candidate.

Politicians in discussing the formal announcement of William L. Taylor today for the Republican nomination for governor seem to be of the opinion that he intends to pose as the candidate of the "plain people" and especially of the labor unions. It is thought that he may have made his announcement at this time and in the way he did in hopes of catching the support of the delegates to the State Federation of Labor at Muncie this week. District Chairman Ensley, Congressman Overstreet and others who issued public statements endorsing Taylor seem to have caught his idea that he is bidding for the support of such labor centers as Indianapolis and Evansville, as they declare that he can win more votes than anyone else in those places.

Meyer's Trial This Week.

Laporte, Ind., Sept. 23.—The case against C. E. Meyer, city treasurer of Michigan City, for embezzlement and malfeasance in office is on the calendar for trial in the Laporte circuit court this week. Special counsel has been retained to prosecute Meyer, a citizens' committee having been instrumental in uncovering alleged short ages amounting to about $10,000. Meyer has not been removed from office. The shortage has been paid, it being the official's defense that he at no time knowingly appropriated for his own use a cent of the city's money.

Locomotive Boiler Let Go.

Orrville, O., Sept. 23.—The engineer of a westbound Pennsylvania freight train, while running at a speed of 20 miles an hour, blew up at Burton City, near here, Sunday. Conductor George Rockhill was killed outright. Fireman Norman Riffe, brakeman H. Crum and Engineer William Bray were fatally injured.

The American Bankers' association will meet at Atlantic City this week.

RESUMED THE OFFENSIVE

General Druce Goes After Moors With Decisive Energy.

Casablanca, Sept. 23.—Negotiations for the cessation of hostilities having failed, General Druce Sunday resumed the offensive and burned the Moorish camps at Jidi Ibrahim, south of Casablanca and dispersed the tribesmen, who offered but little resistance. These operations were chiefly notable for a brilliant forced march of the French troops, who covered forty kilometers inside of twelve hours.

The expedition, consisting of 2,000 infantry with a detachment of cavalry, artillery and native auxiliaries, left camp before dawn and formed into two hollow squares, one behind the other. In this formation they marched some distance under the cover of darkness and unobserved by the tribesmen. A heavy morning sea fog came up at daylight and forced a half-hour's halt, during which shots fired by the advance guard gave the alarm to the enemy. The tribesmen came up in large numbers, but a vigorous attack by the first square soon dispersed them. No further stand was made by the enemy during the march, although scattered groups of horsemen harassed the French flanks.

After the destruction of the camps had been effected the tribesmen returned to the attack, a troop of cavalry repelling a spirited charge by the Moorish horsemen. The French then abandoned their defensive formation and the column returned to camp. Their losses were one killed and ten wounded.

BACK GIVES OUT

Plenty of Rushville Readers Have This Experience

You tax the kidneys — overwork them — They can't keep up the continual strain.

The back gives out—it aches and pains; Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Rushville people tell you how they act.

Mrs. William Trennepohl, 1016 W. First street, Rushville, Ind., says: "Though I did not take Doan's Kidney Pills regularly, yet they did me a great deal of good and relieved me of a nagging pain across the loins that robbed my life of comfort, rendered my nights sleepless and caused weariness to depress me. Before my husband got Doan's Kidney Pills for me at F. B. Johnson & Company's drug store, I could not lie on my back on account of the extreme pain. I do not have backache now and the lameness is rapidly going away. Doan's Kidney Pills have given me great relief and I do not hesitate to recommend them to others similarly afflicted.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

W. B. REDUSO for LARGE WOMEN

Restraints tendency to overfleshiness, and moulds the over-developed proportions into graceful outlines hitherto thought to be attainable only by slighter figures.

This splendid result is attained by an un-banded apron extension which reaches down over the abdomen and hips, giving the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

This feature absolutely eliminates the necessity of any harness-like devices and straps, hitherto deemed essential on corsets of this kind.

New and Sensational Turn In the Matter of the Killing of Senator Goebel.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 23.—Turner Igo of Farmers, Rowan county, Kentucky, is charged with the killing of Senator William Goebel of Kentucky, in an affidavit by Mrs. Lulu Clark. In Mrs. Clark's affidavit, which was taken at Indianapolis on April 11, 1907, in the law office of ex-Governor W. S. Taylor of Kentucky, she says her maiden name was Lulu Williams and she was born at Rothwell, Menifee county, Kentucky, but lived most of her life at Mt. Sterling, Ky., and at the time of Goebel's murder her home was there. She is a niece of Judge Frank Day and also of James Williams of Frenchburg, Ky. She has a cousin named Gertrude King, who lived at Maysville at the time of Goebel's murder. Miss King was at that time keeping company with John Sanford of Covington, Ky. He is a son of the late Attorney Sanford, who was killed by William Goebel during a political fight in Covington, Ky., some years ago.

Upon the day of Goebel's murder the two girls went to Frankfort, Ky. They started to enter the statehouse by the rear entrance, and when on the steps a shot was fired. At the same time they noticed a man standing just inside the door whom they recognized as Sanford. In a minute a second man came running out of the building dressed like a mountaineer and carrying a rifle. He ran to Sanford and said:

"I got the ————"
That man was recognized by the affiant as her friend Turner Igo of Farmers, Rowan county, Ky. Both men ran out of the building to a fence, where Sanford gave a pair of shoes which he was carrying to Igo, who exchanged his boots for them. The men then disappeared.

The affiant states that Igo told her at the Mt. Sterling depot on Jan. 25, 1900, that he was going to kill Goebel and that she saw him afterward at Jeffersonville, Ind., and he reminded her that he had fulfilled his promise. She also says that Sanford had told Gertrude King a few days prior to Goebel's murder that he intended to kill Goebel, saying: "Here is my chance to get revenge."

Turner Igo Is Dead.
Farmers, Ky., Sept. 23.—Turner Igo, who is charged by Mrs. Lulu Clark with the assassination of Governor William Goebel, is dead. Samuel Igo, a cousin of Turner Igo, said that he had never heard of the woman who made an affidavit accusing Turner Igo.

TRUSTEE'S CASE IS DECIDED

Official Fined for Not Following Township Reform Act.

Huntington, Ind., Sept. 23.—After several months of quibbling in the Huntington county courts the case of the state of Indiana ex rel. Advisory Board of Polk Township vs. Ed Fisher, trustee of Polk township, was settled in the circuit court. The case was instituted under the reform act, by which trustees all over the state have been caught and which demands that the township trustees shall advertise for the purchase of all township and school supplies and that the firm securing the contract for such supplies must give bond for the fulfillment of the contract.

The courts demanded a strict interpretation of the law, while the attorney general sent out circulars to the contrary. Following a circular received from the attorney general, Fisher did not follow the law concerning the school supplies, and he was arrested on the charge of a shortage of several thousand dollars. Fisher paid a fine of $350 in settlement of all claims against him. The case was not a charge of embezzlement or graft, but merely non-compliance with the law.

Her Plea Is Self-Defense.

Laporte, Ind., Sept. 23.—The grand jury met today to consider the case against Frances Gray, who has been held in jail for several weeks charged with the murder of Frank Brown. The Gray woman, who is believed to be of respectable parentage, has sealed her lips and refuses to give any information concerning herself, although protesting that she killed Brown in self-defense. Brown was supposed to be her lover. They quarreled and she commanded him to leave the house. After leaving, Brown returned, but he had no sooner entered the house than the woman fired and killed him instantly.

Liberty, Ind., Sept. 23.—Michael Farlander was killed instantly and Joseph Smith was perhaps fatally injured when a scaffold on which the two men were working gave way. They were painting a house. The condition of Smith is critical, and it is feared that he cannot recover.

COURTS FULL HEARING

Senator Borah Refuses to Take Advantage of Technicalities.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 23.—United States Senator William E. Borah, who acted as one of the principal prosecutors for the state of Idaho at the recent trial of William D. Haywood, secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, was placed on trial this morning in the United States court here, charged with conspiring to defraud the government out of title of 17,280 acres of Idaho timber lands. Twelve other persons have been indicted with Senator Borah, but he will be the first to face a federal jury, having demanded a trial prior to the time he shall present his credentials as a senator next December in Washington. Others of the defendants have interposed demurrers because of abatement and other legal technicalities, many of which are still pending, and have charged that the United States district attorney, Norman N. Ruick, used improper and illegal methods while securing the indictments. But Senator Borah has simply entered a plea of not guilty and has forbidden his attorneys to take advantage of any technicalities whatsoever. He has stated as his desire that the case should be tried on its merits.

The conduct of the district attorney before the grand jury which returned the indictment against Senator Borah and others is now under investigation by a specially summoned federal grand jury, while Judge Whitson, who is to preside at the Borah trial, has begun a personal inquiry in open court as to Mr. Ruick's course, summoning in attendance all the witnesses cited to appear before the grand jury.

The indictments against Senator Borah and the twelve others charged that they entered into a conspiracy with 108 residents of Boise whereby the latter were to take up timber claims of 160 acres each, paying a minimum price to the government, and later, when the claims were finally approved, to transfer the land to the Barber Lumber company, an Idaho corporation, whose principal officers are residents of Wisconsin. James T. Barber and Samuel G. Moon of Eau Claire, Wis., are among those indicted. It is claimed that the 108 entrymen swore that they were taking out the claims for their own use and benefit for speculation. The statements are alleged to have been false and the government attorneys claim the entrymen had all entered into a contract to turn the lands over to the lumber corporation as soon as their claims were proved. It is further claimed that Senator Borah and the other alleged conspirators provided funds to many of the 108 entrymen to cover the expenses of taking out their claims.

The interest aroused by the trial is intense in this section of the country, owing to the prominence of all concerned in the alleged conspiracy. One of the co-defendants with Senator Borah is Frank Martin, attorney general of Idaho under former Governor Frank Steunenberg, who was assassinated by Harry Orchard. Another defendant is "John Doe," said to represent Governor Steunenberg himself. Among the 108 entrymen named as a part of the conspiracy, but not indicted, are some of the most prominent business men of Boise. In some instances five members of a family, including wives and daughters, are involved.

The government's interest in the trial of Senator Borah is attested by the presence here of three special prosecutors, to be assisted and advised by District Attorney Ruick. It will be claimed by the defense that Senator Borah, acting as counsel for the lumber company, had no part in the conspiracy, if one existed, and that he dealt only with the transfer of the claims after their purchase had been negotiated in a legal manner.

Two Boys and a Gun.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 23.—Charles, the fourteen-year-old son of Charles Koenig, was instantly killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of Charles Miller, aged fourteen, of Monroeville. The boys were on the Roebuck farm and Miller was showing a new revolver he thought was not loaded. Pointing it at Koenig, he pulled the trigger. The bullet pierced Koenig's abdomen.

Six Lake Sailors Drowned.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—The steamer Alexander Mimick went ashore thirteen miles west of Whitefish Point in Lake Superior, Saturday night. Captain Randall and five of the crew being drowned. Eleven members of the crew were rescued. The Mimick was bound north with coal. It is supposed that the engines broke down and that she drifted ashore during the storm.

Many Watched During Escape.

NO FINAL RESULTS

Hague Peace Conference Will Adjourn With a Barren Record.

NO PERMANENT MEASURES

Of Benefit to the Peace of the World
Have Been Effected at Much Heralded Gathering.

Mr. Choate, Alone of All Those In Attendance, Regards Results In Optimistic Way.

The Hague, Sept. 23.—After having been in session over three months and with adjournment probably a month in the distance, it is recognized generally, and even by the most optimistic in the peace movement, that the second international peace conference has been and will be at its conclusion barren of results leading to permanent measures of benefit to the peace of the world.

Mr. Choate of the American delegation, however, is still optimistic regarding the results, even of the great questions, and especially that of a permanent court of arbitration, being satisfied that the principle is admitted. He thinks that once the conference has concluded its session it will be an easy matter to overcome the prejudices concerning the allotment of judges and that thereafter the establishment of the court will be an easy task. The general opinion among the other delegates, however, differs from that of Mr. Choate. They believe that the adoption of Sir Edward Fry's proposal entrusting the governments with the task of finding a system by which to elect the judges, was a masked method for burying the whole affair, as they declare once the conference is ended the government will not study the question of judges to a greater extent than other questions at issue, such as the limitation of armaments.

Even the proposition for a future meeting of the conference which was unanimously adopted on Saturday, has been so altered as to suppress its most important part, namely the periodicity of the meetings, merely providing for the calling of a third conference, but establishing nothing with regard to convening future conferences.

The prevailing opinion, as expressed by one of the leading delegates, is that the absence of results in the conference on the great questions was due to the lack of preparation by all the countries represented. This, he said, was especially striking in the case of the American delegation, which was supposed to have come here in complete accord with the Latin-American countries. "This accord, however, neither existed nor had it been reached during the conference. Indeed, what is to be dreaded, he declared, is that the chief result of the conference will be a growing feeling of diffidence on the part of the South Americans toward Washington, as, rightly or wrongly, they accuse the United States of having neglected them and of caring only for working in accord with Great Britain and Germany, thinking that union with these great powers would be sufficient to carry out any project while the facts proved to be contrary as in the case of the permanent court of arbitration, which represents a victory for Brazil over the compact formed by America, Great Britain and Germany. It is estimated that the conference has cost altogether $1,300,000.

THE "MARSEILLAISE."

It Was Written by Rouget de Lisle in One Brief Hour.

On April 25, 1792, Rouget de Lisle, the military engineer, who had assumed the aristocratic prefix to become an officer, was a guest at a banquet given by Baron Dietrich, first mayor of Strasbourg.

Patriotic excitement was at its height. "Marchons!" "Aux armes, citoyens!" were phrases on every lip. But as the champagne went round the ladies grew weary and pleaded for another topic. Patriotic songs? A hymn for the army of the Rhine? Something better than the jingling "Ca ira!" The host first suggested a public competition and a prize. Then he turned to Rouget de Lisle and asked him to "compose a noble song for the French people."

Rouget de Lisle tried to excuse himself. Again the champagne passed round, and just as the party broke up a fellow officer about to quit Strasbourg next day begged De Lisle for a copy of his forthcoming song.

"I make the promise on behalf of your comrade," Dietrich replied.

Rouget de Lisle reached his lodging close by, but not to sleep. His violin lay on the table. Taking it up, he struck a few chords. Soon a melody seemed to grow under his fingers. No sooner had he put down the notes than he dashed off the words.

Thus having in a brief hour secured for himself an undying name he threw himself upon his bed and slumbered heavily.—Reader Magazine.

STAMMERING.

Caused More Often by Habit Than by Defective Vocal Organs.

"Stammering is often more the result of habit than from any defect of the vocal organs," says an authority. "It is generally, if not always, caused by a spasm of the larynx, resulting from nervous contraction of the organs, thus refusing to permit a proper flow of the air current producing tone. People rarely or never stammer when singing, for then the attention is divided between words and music, the nervousness is momentarily forgotten and the passage of the air current through the larynx is continuous and unobstructed.

"Stammering very often is the result of imitation, sometimes intentional, sometimes unconscious, and the affliction is much more general than might be supposed. In one comparatively small section of the city there are thirty-five stammerers, and every one of them is able to demonstrate to his own satisfaction not only that he does not stammer very badly, but that some other person he knows stammers a great deal worse than himself. Every stammerer is intensely sensitive about his infirmity, rarely forgives and never does forget any one to whom it which in his mind serves of ridicule."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Amusements

The Grand theatre will have an entire change of program tonight of up-to-date pictures and a beautifully illustrated ballad sung by Miss Iva Brown, who has become popular among the theatre goers of Rushville as a singer of merit.

Tonight the management of the Vaudet will present the educating subjects entitled "The Ostrich Farm at Nice, Italy," and "The Algerian." Mr. Wilson will sing the illustrated Hoosier song, "In the Shadow of the Maple on the Hill."

During her stay in Rome in the latter part of May, and in the months of June and July, this last summer, Miss Jane Corcoran learned to dance the tarantella, the sinuous, wild dance of the Italian peasants. Signor Giovanni Surdon, the celebrated Italian dancing master who teaches the royal youths and maidens their first steps, took Miss Corcoran for his pupil and each day of the times he spent in Rome, Miss Corcoran practiced before the eyes of the stately old signor.

After her instruction in Rome, Miss Corcoran spent two weeks in the villages of Southern Italy where she studied the peasants at their play and obtained the local color which she injects into her performance and dance in Ibsen's great drama, "A Doll's House." The costume which Miss Corcoran wears in the performance the dance, is an exact copy of those worn by the peasant women.

Miss Corcoran will appear under the direction of Arthur C. Alston at the Auditorium in Connersville, Tuesday night, as Nora, the heart torn butterfly wife in "A Doll's House." She is supported by Mr. James M. Brophy and a carefully selected company.
